What we will pay

In consideration of the payment of the premium, we agree to indemnify you in the manner and to the extent set out in this document.

This document, the Policy Certificate and any written confirmation issued by us extending or limiting cover form your insurance contract.

We will pay claims up to the Maximum Benefit amounts shown in the Schedule of Benefits, depending on whether you have elected to purchase the Premier, Essentials or Frequent Traveller policy. Your Policy Certificate details the type of cover you have purchased. The policy limits apply per insured person and are stated in New Zealand Dollars.

Their policy benefits will be shared within the travelling insured person's policy limits.

Period of insurance

Your policy commences once a Policy Certificate has been issued to you and the required premium is paid. The period of insurance continues until the expiry date shown on your Policy Certificate or until you return to your normal place of residence, whichever is the earlier date.

For Frequent Traveller policies your policy is activated at the commencement of each Journey under taken in the period of insurance. If you have purchased a Frequent Traveller policy then each Journey is covered up to a maximum of 60 days.

Excess

An excess, as stated in your Policy Certificate, will be deducted from our settlement if you make a claim (unless a higher excess has been imposed on your cover by us and confirmed to you in writing). The excess applies under this policy to each separate event giving rise to a claim. There will be no excess charged if you have purchased and paid the additional premium for a No Excess policy. This will be shown on your Policy Certificate.

Your Duty of Disclosure

When you apply for insurance or alter this policy, you have a duty at law, to disclose to us all material facts. A material fact is one that may influence a prudent insurer in deciding whether or not to accept the cover and, if so, on what terms and conditions and for what premium.

Examples of information you may need to disclose include:

- anything that increases the risk of an insurance claim;
- any criminal conviction subject to the Criminal Records (Clean Slate) Act 2004;
- if another insurer has cancelled or refused to insure or renew insurance, has imposed special terms, or refused any claim;
- any insurance claim or loss made or suffered in the past.

These examples are a guide only. If there is any doubt as to whether any particular piece of information needs to be disclosed, this should be referred to us.

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure it may result in:

- this policy being void retrospectively;
- this policy being cancelled; or
- the amount we pay if you make a claim being reduced.

Change of circumstances

During the period of insurance, you must tell us immediately of any material change in the circumstances surrounding the subject matter of this insurance that:

- increases the risk we are insuring, or
- alters the nature of the risk we are insuring.

Once you have told us, we may immediately change the terms of this policy or cancel it. If you fail to tell us, we may apply these changes retrospectively from the date you ought to have reasonably told us.

If prior to payment of the final amount payable for your Journey you must cancel or amend your travel arrangements due to any unforeseeable circumstance beyond your control we will pay up to the policy's Maximum Benefit for your irrecoverable travel and accommodation deposits or expenses, which have been paid in advance.

In respect of a cancellation fee charged by your travel agent, provided the travel agent has disclosed their cancellation fees to you in writing at the time of making your travel arrangements, we will also pay you up to a maximum of 10% of your total travel costs (that were paid through the travel agent) or $500 per adult, whichever is the lesser.

Important information concerning Pre-existing medical conditions

There is no cover for Pre-existing medical conditions under the Essentials policy. There is limited cover for Pre-existing medical conditions under the Premier policy.

Please refer to the definition of Pre-existing medical conditions in General Terms on page 12.

Some Pre-existing medical conditions are covered automatically under the Premier policy. If you have a Pre-existing medical condition which falls outside the automatic acceptance criteria detailed below, the condition must be disclosed to us, whether or not you are seeking cover for the condition. This is because the condition may affect the terms and availability of cover. If the condition is not disclosed to us, there is a risk that no claims will be payable under this policy.

(i) Premier policy – Pre-existing medical conditions that are not covered

Some medical conditions cannot be covered under this policy. These include but are not limited to any medical condition:

- for which surgery is planned or for which you are on a waiting list;

Even if you do not seek cover for these Pre-existing medical conditions, they must be disclosed to us to avoid non-disclosure issues under this policy. If we choose to provide cover related to these conditions an additional premium will be charged and written confirmation extending cover will be issued by us.

(iii) Premier policy – Pre-existing medical conditions that are automatically covered

If you have purchased the Premier policy and your Pre-existing medical condition falls within the terms detailed below then you are automatically covered for the condition.

If your condition does not meet the above criteria please complete a medical assessment to disclose the medical condition, even if you do not require cover for the condition, as this may affect the terms and availability of cover under this policy. If cover is approved, you will be required to pay an additional premium and written confirmation will be forwarded to you. If you are in any doubt as to whether a medical condition is covered please contact our office.

2a. Overseas Medical Expenses

Section 4: Baggage, Personal Effects and Money Benefits

Based on the policy option shown on your Policy Certificate, you will be eligible up to the Maximum Benefit shown in the Schedule of Benefits.

If you have purchased an Essentials policy there are a number of benefits under this section where cover is either reduced or unavailable.

If your Personal Baggage or effects are stolen, you must notify the local police or local government authority within 24 hours and you must obtain a copy of their incident report. Any loss or damage to Personal Baggage whilst in the custody of the carriers (airline, bus company etc) must be notified to them immediately and a property irregularity report obtained. You must take all reasonable precautions to protect the property insured by this policy and to prevent any claim arising.

4a. Personal Baggage

We will pay up to the policy's Maximum Benefits for accidental loss or damage to your Personal Baggage, which has been taken or purchased on your Journey. The loss or damage must occur in the course of the Journey and during the period of insurance.

At our discretion we may elect to repair or replace the property or we will pay the present day value of the lost or damaged item in cash, after making an allowance for depreciation and wear and tear. Proof of purchase and ownership will be required to support any claim over $500.

The special item limit per item for camera and video equipment includes attached or unattached lenses or accessories.

Items Under 2 years of age

For items that are less than 2 years old, present day value means the lesser of the purchase price or the replacement price of the item(s).

Items Over 2 years of age

If an item is more than 2 years old, present day value is calculated by applying a minimum 20% depreciation per annum (from the date of purchase) to the lesser of the purchase price or current replacement price of the item. Depreciation may be measured by using the current second hand value of the lost or damaged item.

Items where the age of the item cannot be determined

If you cannot establish the purchase date of any item, present day value is calculated by applying a minimum of 50% depreciation, (which may be increased further based upon our assessment of the age of the item) to the lesser of the purchase price or current replacement price of the item.

4b. Emergency Baggage

If your Personal Baggage is temporarily lost in transit, and is not restored to you within 12 hours of the discovery of the loss, we will reimburse you for the emergency purchase of essential replacement items. We will reimburse you up to NZ$500 after the first 12 hours under the Premier policy and $250 under the Essentials policy. If the Personal Baggage is still missing after a further 48 hours then an additional amount of NZ$500 is claimable under the Premier policy. After a further 72 hours then a further amount of NZ$500 is also claimable under the Premier policy, if you are still deprived of your luggage.

Receipts of purchases must be produced to support any claim.

This section does not apply if your Personal Baggage is temporarily lost when you are returning to your normal place of residence.

Please note that where the mislaid luggage is not found and a claim is made under Section 4a, the costs of the items purchased under this policy section will be deducted from the claim amount paid under Section 4a.

4c. Specified High Value Items

(Premier and Frequent Traveller policy only)

If you wish to include items of Personal Baggage or effects that have a present day value more than the applicable policy limit per item, you are able to specify these items on your policy.
